

Baruch College Specials

Description: Programs on national and local issues that help shape policy and education from Baruch College of the City University of New York.

Scope: Material in this collection includes raw recordings featuring prominent municipal, political, labor, and educational leaders in New York City. Although the show is still in production, the majority of these tapes are from the 1980s to early 2000s. Examples of the type of topics covered can be found on the Baruch College Specials section of the CUNY TV website.
